EDUCATION FOUNDATION HOSTS
ITS FORTH EVER 2.70 MILE
BARRETT MEMORIAL RUN

Meandering throughout the maple trees and lodge-pole pines that surround the Columbia High School Campus is a beautiful cross country trail that has been home to the Columbia Cross Country teams for several years now. The race begins on the front fields before going up into the woods. Once on the trail, you will encounter hills, creeks, bridges and fields. The race will conclude back on the track where everyone can watch you complete your run!

Medals will be awarded by grade as this is more of a fun run than a competition. We are trying to support the Columbia Cross Country Barrett Scholarship with a 2.70 mile Run/Walk. A portion of the proceeds will be donated towards the Barrett Scholarship that the Cross Country team gives to one senior boy & girl each year at Columbia.

At 9:00 am on October 21, 2017 we will begin the race with registration starting at 8:00 a.m. This is not a USA Track and Field sanctioned event, we are not able to provide online registration. Therefore, we can not accept payment by credit card. Please fill out the attached form and send to the address below, the old fashioned way.
