DASA Certification Course Information

The DASA Certification course is designed to meet the new NYS Education Department regulations for Training in Harassment, Bullying, Cyberbullying and Discrimination in Schools: Prevention and Intervention.

The amended Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) took effect on July 1, 2013. It requires all persons applying to the New York State Education Department for an administrative or supervisory service, classroom teaching service or school service certificate or license (after December 31, 2013) to complete six hours of training on harassment, bullying and discrimination prevention and intervention.

Off-Site Training Available

BH-BL can also provide DASA certification training at your school or facility. Please contact Juliann DellaRocco at jdellarocco@bhbl.org
